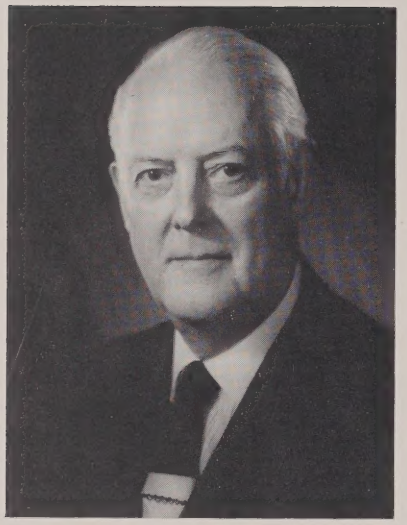
Pride - Cornerstone



DR. WILFRED O'LEARY
Latin Head Master

Today, for the 83rd time, the exuberant alumni of Boston Latin and Boston English will again file expectantly into the stands of ivy-covered Harvard Stadium. They will see two determined teams of young men valiantly, each team trying to snatch victory from the grasp of the other. Yet the crowd will not merely gaze passively. No, rather they will "cheer like volley thunders" and participate as actively as if they themselves were in uniform. If their team wins they will rush onto the field, in a mass outburst of joy. If the opponent prevails, they will walk away with a quiet pride, knowing that they really didn't lose but that time just ran out too soon.

The detached spectator might ask, "Why do they leave warm homes, to flock to a game, which at times determines nothing but who will be in last place in a city schoolboy league? Why do they come year after year to this chilly, often rain-drenched stadium to yell themselves hoarse?

Why do they come? Is it simply to enjoy a football game? No, it is more than this. It is that sense of belonging, that unique oneness that can only be experienced in the roar of a crowd. It is that fervent belief that your team win or lose is the best. It is this contagious pride and school spirit that infects these thousands every Thanksgiving and makes them feverishly return, year after year.

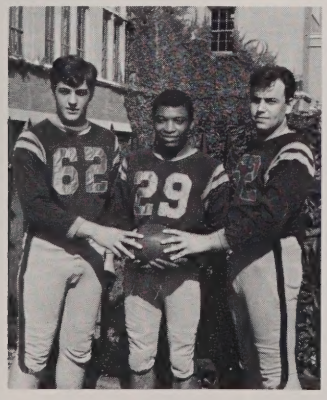
MR. JAMES W. DAILEY
English Head Master

The fan can be truly proud of all of these young men who began training in the hot sun of August to represent their schools in the windy cool of November. We should pause here to extend our thanks to coaches Howie Smith and Jack Doherty of Latin and English respectively and their dedicated coaching staffs for their devotion to the task of cultivating in each player the virtues of the gridiron, namely tenacity, leadership, and sportsmanship.



English Tri-Captains
PETE MOSCA, ERROL MORRISON,
ED SHANAHAN

The two teams will soon appear on the field, so, enjoy four quarters of this heated competition, savor the electricity flowing through the crowd caught up in this traditional battle. Be absorbed in this distinctive annual experience known as "The Game".

The B.L.S. Class of 1970 Presents:

MISSION IMPOSSIBLE

Good morning Mr. Doherty. Your mission, should you decide to accept it is to keep Norm Finley (pictured below) from scoring. Good luck coach.

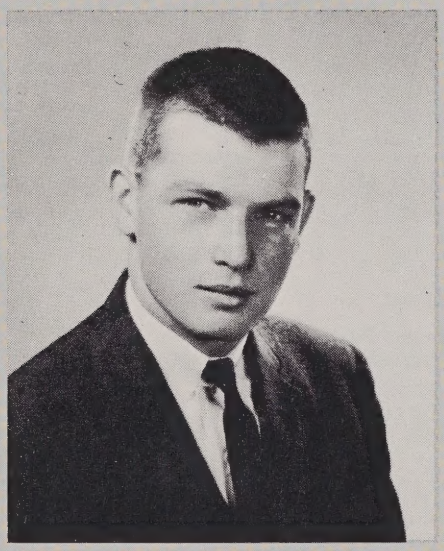
In Memoriam



MICHAEL PATRICK QUINN
1946 - 1969

As we enjoy this traditional gridiron battle, we should pause for a moment to remember the young men, past and present, who by personal sacrifice and determined play, have molded that tradition. One such young man was Michael Patrick Quinn.

"Quohog", as his team mates called him starred at right guard for the Purple for two years, earning All-City and All-Scholastic honors in his senior year. A versatile athlete, he was an All-City hockey player and outstanding track star. Off the athletic field he was active in many extracurricular functions, including the Drill Team and the Victory Club. Yet in spite of his demanding schedule, Mike kept his grades up, realizing that his studies must be his first consideration. He was accepted at Holy Cross College in 1964 as a result of this diligent study.

As a member of the Crusaders, Mike was captain of the freshman football team and demonstrated both athletic skill and leadership ability, throughout his collegiate career. Upon graduation, well prepared by his R.O.T.C. training and football discipline he entered the Marines as a 2nd Lieutenant. On August 29, 1969 he made the greatest personal sacrifice of all, when he gave his life in the service of his country.

It would be safe to say, that if the succeeding generations of young men who play on this field follow the example of Mike Quinn then "The Game" will continue in the same spirit as it has for the past 87 years, with determination, sportsmanship, and clean, hard play.

President Kennedy

A Harvard intellectual
With principles quite high
A Naval hero effectual
Recalled with tear, and sigh.

When he was our president
He feared no nation's might;
To every U.S. resident
He shed a shining light.

All the nations of the earth
Drawn to his smiling face
With abundant wit, and mirth
But firm with every race.

Presidents do come, and go
Strong or weak by fate
Our schoolchildren all do know
John F. Kennedy was great.

Senator Edward M. Kennedy said upon receipt of a copy of the above poem "It is an extremely moving, and touching tribute to the late president."

THE ENGLISH HIGH SCHOOL

Welcomes Its New Head Master

MR. JAMES W. DAILEY

The English High School community, faculty, alumni, and student body, welcomes its new head master, the thirteenth, in the long history of this, America's oldest high school.

A graduate of Boston College High School, Mr. Dailey obtained his B.S. and M.A. from Boston College, and received advanced degrees from Boston University. After teaching at Boston College High School for five (5) years, Mr. Dailey went on to found, and become an assistant head master, of the Newman Preparatory School.

He then became a mathematics specialist at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, a teacher at the Boston Technical High School, and then assumed the position of department head in math. at the Brighton High School.

In 1963, Mr. Dailey assumed the job of co-ordinator of the computer services division of the data processing service of the City of Boston, Public Schools, a post in which he served, until his new assignment, the Head Mastership of the English High School.

We wish Mr. Dailey, congratulations and best wishes on his appointment as the head master of America's oldest high school, and wish him the best of luck, in America's best school.

Alma Mater, tried and true,
English High, our English High;
Oft our hearts shall turn to you,
English High, our English High;
Should e'er the laurel wreath be mine,
I'll lay the honor at thy shrine,
Our hearts, our hopes, our prayers are thine
English High, our English High.

Men may come and men may go,
English High, our English High;
Yet in deep and peaceful flow,
English High, our English High;
Shall thy stream of learning wide,

In Memoriam

Joseph L. Kenney

Graduates, students, and faculty of the English High School mourn the death of Mr. Joseph L. Kenney, late retired member of the History Department. A remarkable inspiration to generations of E.H.S. men, he will be always considered here, truly "A Man of Honor and Achievement."

1967 marked the retirement of Mr. Joseph L. Kenney of the History Department. After receiving an A.B. Degree from Holy Cross in 1919, Mr. Kenney taught in the following New York schools:

Iona Prep — New Rochelle
St. John's College — Brooklyn

After teaching for a time at the Newman School in Lakewood, N. J., Mr. Kenney returned to Boston where he earned his ED.M. from Harvard University in 1928.

Appointed to the English High School faculty in January, 1934, Mr. Kenney, on his retirement completed forty-three (43) years of teaching.

He coached baseball, football, basketball, and boxing in New York Schools; a former member of the N. Y. State Umpires Assn., Central Board of Football Officials; Eastern Mass. Assn. of Approved Basketball Officials.

He was instrumental in making basketball a major sport in Eastern Canadian Colleges.

The "Kenney Basketball Award" is given annually at St. Francis Xavier University in Nova Scotia in his name.

"His life was gentle, and the elements so mix'd in him that Nature might stand up and say to all the world, 'This was a man.'"

Glancing at the Record

Over the years this series has produced an amazing number of exciting games and an even greater number of exciting and talented players. Undergraduates and alumni on both sides of the field thrill to the retelling of tales about the Logans, the Kopanses, the Caseys, and the Bilodeaus; the Manahans, the Munichellos, the McCabes, and the Cofields. But relatively little attention has been paid to the directors of these spectacles. The men whose work behind the scenes and throughout the years have helped to mold and develop the great and the near-great teams that we all have cheered. Therefore, this year "Glancing at the Record" salutes

The Coaches

Coach Fitzgerald

Coach Stewart

Coach McCarthy

In 83 years a total of 26 men have worn the mantel of Head Coach into The Game (17 for EHS and 9 for BLS). Amazingly enough 15 of them (10 for EHS and 5 for BLS) have retired from the ranks with at least a .500 winning record against their holiday rivals.

Length of tenure has been the exception rather than the rule at EHS where only four men have coached for more than five years. The opposite has been true at BLS where five of the nine coaches remained at least for five years.

The dean of them all, though was the Purple's Charles S. ("Charlie Fitz") Fitzgerald, BLS '14. In thirty years as head coach at the Latin School his teams amassed eleven victories and five ties on Thanksgiving Day to put him sixth on the list of "winningest" BLS coaches, but far ahead of all coaches on either side with respect to tenure. The present English Coach, William J. ("Bill") Stewart, EHS '37, is now in his twenty-second year at the helm and he leads all preceding him at EHS in length of service.

English has had four coaches, J. Manahan, Corbett, B. Kilroy, and Downey, who never lost to the Latin School, whereas only Coaches Kiley and Mathews could boast unblemished records for the Purple. However, among all of the men who coached in at least eight of the classics, the most successful was Latin School's Walter W. ("Pep") McCarthy. In his eight years as head coach, "Pep", now freshman football coach at Princeton, lost to English only twice. In fact against all opponents his teams suffered just seven losses during his entire career. He coached four undefeated teams and two undefeated/untied teams, and when he left the Latin School his teams had won sixteen straight games and his 1959 team was ranked third in the country in a national poll.

Coach Stewart, on the other hand, is the only man ever to coach three consecutive Turkey Day triumphs for the Blue (1961-63), and his 1962 and 1963 teams won statewide recognition.

The stories that could be told exceed the space that can be had, so discretion dictates that we stop here. But let us take a moment to give a cheer to those that have and those that do add so much to the tradition of this rivalry — the coaches.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

1954 . . . Harvard Stadium . . . BLS 20 — EHS 7 . . . First time in history a Thanksgiving game was postponed . . . Parlaying a brace of fumbles into a pair of quick touchdown, the Purple blew open what had been a close battle until then . . .First time in 50 years Latin made it three straight over the Blue . . . D'Avolino's punting kept Latin at bay . . . First half ended 0 0 . . . Then Beckett, McDonough, and Chaban combined for the English TD . . . Johnson scored from the two for Latin . . . point missed . . . BLS kicked off and in 57 seconds there were 14 more Latin points . . . DiGangi (L) falling on one fumble and Bob Grossman on the other . . . Under quarterback Powers the Purple operated as if they had all the time in the world . . . Stars for the Purple: Casey, Johnson, Tobin Powers, and Grossman . . . For the Blue: McDonough, D'Avolino, Beckett, and Chaban.

TEN YEARS AGO

1959 . . . Harvard Stadium . . . Fair . . . 36° temp. . . . Slippery field . . . Attendance 23,000 . . . Each team undefeated at start . . . BLS City Champions . . . BLS 22 — EHS 6. Latin's great defense stalls English attack. Nine blocks of granite headed by End Paul Barringer contained EHS vaunted ground attack to a mere 25 net yards as Latin won its second successive City Crown. A record schoolboy crowd of 23,000 witnessed BLS tie the nation's oldest high school series at 30 victories each and 13 ties. EHS suffered its first defeat of the season and BLS extended its undefeated total to 16 games. Wind was blowing in gusts of 30 m.p.h. and there were many fumbles, BUT it was Latin's under any conditions. Bilodeau, whose passing pulled out a 26-24 thriller last year, gave an even more comprehensive quarterbacking lesson to English this time. The talented 5 ft. 11 in., 160-lb. youngster showed what a difference a year makes while scoring Latin's first two touchdowns. His passing, punting, and play-calling was as good as ever, but it was some nifty Tomm-foolery that really started English on the skids. He faked a pass on a roll-out left, darted down the left side lines and ran 44 yards to the English 26. EHS never recovered from this explosive dash that opened the second period. Four plays later Bilodeau sneaked over from the two, then hit Paul Barringer with the conversion pass for an 8 to 0 lead. Later in the third period, Randy Benn, attempting a deep reverse, was tackled in the end zone by Jack Costello for a safety after Barringer threw Lehman for a nine-yard loss back to the EHS ten-yard line. Bilodeau again moved from the one-yard line early in the final quarter to complete a 57-yard drive. Latin's last score came in the middle of the last period when Mulcahy ran a few yards to his left and then reversed and darted 72 yards for a touchdown. EHS scored late in the third period when Carey intercepted a pass from Bilodeau, intended for Frame, on the 40. A pass, Lehman to Lovuolo gained 28 yards. Carey ended the march by a diveover from the two for the touchdown.

FIVE YEARS AGO

1964 — at Harvard Stadium . . . BLS 24 — EHS 22 . . . This was the 78th game of the series and one of the most thrilling games of all. Latin School finished with an unbeaten season, being tied once by Boston College High and winning the championship of the City League.

In the first period, Hatherly recovered an English fumble on the EHS 45 yard line. On the third play Masi passed to Hatherly on the 30 yard stripe and Hatherly ran the ball to the five and Masi went over in the next play. Leoney rushed for the points after. In the second period speedy Manley after five plays for a gain of 28 yards, scored on a plunge through the line for seven yards and rushed safely over for the conversion and the score was tied, 8 to 8.

On the following kickoff Jack Burns took the ball on his own 17 yard line and ran down the left side line to the English 17 yard line where he was tackled from behind by Captain Caporale.

On the next play Masi hit Hatherly in the end zone for the touchdown. Masi's conversion rush made it BLS 16, EHS 8.

Latin kicked off in the second half and English in a dozen plays ran the ball 60 yards and Murphy went through tackle for the score. Manley rushed for two points but was tackled by Hatherly, keeping the score down to 16-14 at the end of the third period.

Latin's last score came in the latter part of the fourth period when the team gained 60 yards on four Masi forward passes, the fourth one being a ten yarder to Hatherly for the score. Masi passed to Bill McDonald for the conversion making the score 24-14.

English received the kickoff and in 8 plays, including run of 30 yards by Caporale, advanced to the 4 yard line, from which Caporale broke through tackle for the touchdown. He also rushed for the conversion making the score 24-22.

Halfway through the 4th period Latin School fumbled and Tracey recovered for English on the Latin 23rd stripe. Here Latin's defensive team held for 4 downs. Then BLS in a series of rushes and passes got the ball as far as the 47 yard line.

English took over and brought the ball back again to the 12 yard line, where Latin held them. On the fourth down with only seconds left Caporale missed a placement kick by a couple of yards and BLS had won 24 to 22.

LAST YEAR

BLS — 33 EHS — 12

On a raw and overcast morning a previously winless BLS team broke loose for its best offensive performance of the season, scored more points against EHS than any Latin School team had in 80 years, and for the seventh time gave the Purple the lead in the series.

Both teams came into The Game with miserable records (English having only one victory and BLS none), but as has always been the case in this contest, the record books meant nothing.

Latin School unwrapped a new quarterback in Norman Finley and therein lies the story of the game. The 6-1, 200-pound junior scored two touchdowns and passed for two more in rolling up a total of 183 yards in the air to complement his 86 yards gained on the ground.

BLS scored halfway through the first period but quickly lost its momentum to English which scored shortly thereafter. Having stopped the Purple's next offensive series, the Blue then drove down the field and not only seemed headed for a certain score, but also appeared to be in control of the game. However, with the ball on the Latin School one yard line, BLS co-captain Nick Mazares slammed into English halfback Al Blades, the ball popped into the waiting arms of the Purple's defensive back Steve Judge, and the game turned completely around. Finley then engineered a drive which resulted in a BLS touchdown with only seven seconds left in the half. The conversion kick was good, and Latin School was home free.

The second half was all BLS as the passing combination of Finley to co-captain Bob Gallagher (which was good on 8 of 12 attempts for 168 yards) continued to wreak havoc on the Blue and Blue defense. Gallagher scored twice in the second half, but his catch of a 24 yard Finley pass in the third period, ripping the ball out of the hands of the EHS defender, and then scampering 20 more yards for the Purple's fourth TD was the play of the game.

The Latin School defense allowed English only one yard rushing in the second half and along with Finley, Gallagher, and McCarthy deserved much praise. Capt. Nappa and Erroll Morrison earned plaudits for the Blue.
